The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, January 17. 1706.

From the Paris and Bruſſels Gaz. dated Jan. 16. & 19.

Madrid, January 1.

THE Preparations for the King's Departure are carried on, and publick Prayers are made for happy Succeſs to his Arms. His Majeſty has given the Preſidentſhip of the Council of the Treaſury to Don Lorenzo Armengual Suffragan Biſhop of Saragoſſa, and a Place in the Council of Caſtile to Don Miguel Franciſco Guerra. The Count de Montenuevo is made Maſter of the Horſe. 'Tis confirm'd that the Rebels that were in Denia, aſſiſted by the Regiment of Nabot which revolted, have by ſurprize taken Gandia and Oliva: We have alſo Advice, that 300 Horſe of that Regiment and other Rebels led by one Baſet, appearing in a tumultuous Manner before Valencia, and the Inhabitants not being upon their Guard, ſeveral Rebels ſlip'd into the City, and open'd the Gates to their Comrades, who have alſo taken Xativa, and ſome other neighbouring Places. The Troops that march'd out of Arragon for Valencia, have begun to enter that Province by the Way of Morella, and will be reinforc'd by the Regular Militia of Caſtile, which are drawing together on the Frontier. A Body of them is already form'd in the Neighbourhood of Requena, where ſome Leaders of the Rebels have been ſiez'd and put into the Hands of Juſtice. They write from Arragon, that 2500 Men, Regular Troops, were come into that Province by the Valley of Ainſa. Thoſe that were in Caſtile, are arriv'd near Saragoſſa; and they continue their March to form 2 Bodies, one on each ſide the Ebro, under the Command of the Marſhal de Theſſe who arriv'd at Saragoſſa the 21ſt of laſt Month. He has given Order for preparing all things for their ſpeedy entring upon Action. The Inhabitants of Alicant have made ſeveral Intrenchments in the Roads near that Town, and caſt up ſeveral Trenches in their Streets, and in thoſe Parts that are of eaſieſt Acceſs, to prevent all Surprize. Some Troops from Andalouſia have entred the Kingdom of Valencia, by Murcia and Carthagena. The People on the Frontiers, and on that ſide towards la Mancha are in Arms, to oppoſe the Progreſs of the Rebels. The Count de las Torres is arriv'd at Requena. Don Joſeph de Salazar has made himſelf Maſter of Monroy, and of 2 other Places on the Frontiers of Catalonia and Valencia, in which the Rebels had intrench'd themſelves; they were entred Sword in Hand, and all the Rebels in them were cut in Pieces, with no more Loſs than of one Soldier kill'd and 2 wounded. 'Tis reported there has been a great Feud in Lerida, between the Inhabitants and the Engliſh Garriſon; that they fought, and ſeveral Men were kill'd on both ſides; and that there has been the like Diſorder in Barcelona.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated January 22.

Pina on the Ebro, January 1. The 26th of laſt Month, a Regiment of Horſe, carrying with them 2 Peaſants Priſoners for killing 2 French Soldiers, entred Saragoſſa. The Officers of Juſtice demanded thoſe Priſoners of the chief Officer of that Regiment, who refus'd to part with them. Thereupon the Populace ran to Arms, to the Number of 3 or 4000 Men. The Viceroy being inform'd of the Matter, went to the Regiment, and the 2 Priſoners were deliver'd to him, which quieted the Tumult. The 28th the Regiment of Sillery coming to the Gate of Saragoſſa, the Captain of the Burghers that was upon the Guard, caus'd the Gate to be ſhut, and would not ſuffer that Regiment to enter. The Viceroy and the Marſhal de Theſſe went thither, to cauſe the Gate to be open'd. The Regiment entred with their Bayonets at the Muzzles of their Pieces, with Order not to Fire: But as ſoon as they were in, the Burghers fir'd at them out of the Windows, upon which a great Commotion enſued. The Marſhal de Theſſe kept within the Viceroy's Houſe; and 3 of his Servants being kill'd, the Magiſtrates plac'd a guard of 60 Men to ſecure his Lodgings. In the Night the Viceroy ſent Carts to fetch to his Houſe the Marſhal's Plate and Baggage, leſt it ſhould have been plunder'd as was the Baggage of the Regiment of Sillery. It was propos'd to cauſe the Army to march to reduce the Mutineers to Obedience, but the Nobility and Jurats interpoſing, appeas'd the Tumult, and prevented further Miſchief. In this Action we had 2 Officers and 30 Soldiers kill'd, beſides about 50 mortally wounded. The Marſhal de Theſſe came hither 3 Days ago. He ſaid this Morning, that King Philip was to ſet out from Madrid the 20th of laſt Month for Saragoſſa; where Boats are making for the Bridges that are to be laid over the Ebro and the Cinca, before the Caſtle of Mequinenza, which is ſituate on thoſe 2 Rivers and is fortified. Some Monks have been expell'd the City of Murcia, for openly exciting in their Sermons the People to Revolt.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated January 22.

Paris, January 15. The Count de Heronville Brigadier, ſent by the Duke of Berwick, arriv'd the 12th and acquainted the King with the Surrender of the Caſtle of Nice the 4th of this Month. The Garriſon, which conſiſted of about 1400 Men at the beginning of the Siege; but reduc'd to 800 Soldiers and 112 Officers, was conducted to Saorgio, with the uſual Honours, 6 Cannon and 2 Mortars. In the Place were found 110 Pieces of Cannon, of which 76 are ſerviceable. The Siege laſted 55 Days: And 'tis ſaid the Marquis de Carail might have made a longer Defence, but ſeeing no Likelyhood of being ſuccour'd, and being apprehenſive the Garriſon would mutiny, he judg'd it beſt to accept an honourable Capitulation. The King has ſaid this Caſtle coſt him 700000 Weight of Powder. 'Tis talk'd the ſaid Caſtle will be blown up; and 'tis reported as certain, that the King has ſent Order to the Troops that ſerv'd in the Siege, to march to Catalonia: But 'tis ſaid the 32 Companies of Grenadiers that were arriv'd in the Camp, are not to go to Spain, but to return to Alſace. M. de Bellefontain, Commadore of the King's Ships that lay off Nice during the Siege, is to ſail to Oneglia, to endeavour to make that Poſt ſurrender. The King's Letter to the Cardinal de Noailles, ordering him to cauſe Te Deum to be ſung in our Cathedral, for the taking of Nice, &c. is as follows,

Con-

Couſin,

AFTER I had taken the Town of Nice, and caus'd it to be demoliſh'd, I judg'd it my Intereſt to make my ſelf Maſter likewiſe of the Caſtle and Citadel. The Trenches were open'd the Beginning of laſt Month, and tho' the Place was defended by a numerous Garriſon, and was fortified as ſtrong as Art and Nature could make it, it was forc'd to ſurrender the 4th of this Month. Montmeillan having been block'd up above a Year, ſubmitted to my Obedience almoſt at the ſame time I caus'd Nice to be attack'd; and its long Reſiſtance has availd nothing, unleſs to render the Conqueſt of it the more important, by the Ruine of almoſt all the Garriſon. The good Succeſs of all theſe Enterprizes, and the Advantages that are inſeparable from it, are ſo many new marks of the Bleſſing of God on my Arms, and oblige me to rerurn him publick Thanks. Wherefore my Will is, that you cauſe Te Deum to be ſung. &c.

The Marſhal de Theſſe, who is retir'd from Saragoſſa to Pina, for his greater Safety, has written to the King that the Tumult rais'd in that City is appeas'd for the preſent: but that 'tis much to be fear'd the like may break out agen, and have worſe Effects; the leaſt thing being enough to provoke a People to take Arms, who are fill'd with Animoſity againſt our Troops. Some ſmall Places in Murcia and Caſtile have declar'd for King Charles, at the Inſtigation of the Monks: But 'tis given out at Court, that the Biſhop of Murcia having caus'd ſome Militia to take Arms, has put himſelf at their Head, and having thrown Succours into Carthagena, is advanc'd into the Kingdom of Valencia, and has put ſome Men into Alicant, to aſſiſt ſuch of the Inhabitants as are well-affected to King Philip. 'Tis reported, that in the laſt Audience the Ambaſſador of Spain had of our King, his Majeſty told him he could not ſend many Troops yet to Rouſſillon; but that in February, a conſiderable Body of his Troops would be ready to enter Catalonia. Letters from Nantes and from ſeveral other Places, give diſmal Accounts of the Damage done by the late violent Storm to ſhipping and on the Coaſt. They write from Toulon, that the Squadron of Men of War commanded by M. du Queſne Guiton, ſuffer'd very much, loſing Maſts, &c. in that Storm; and was come to an Anchor at the Iſlands Hieres, to refit: 2 Ships of that Squadron are miſſing.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated January 23.

Madrid, January 1. 'Tis uncertain yet what Day the King will ſet out from hence, his Departure depending on the Succeſs of his Troops that are marching to recover ſeveral Places in Valencia: Which Troops conſiſt of 2600 Foot and 1500 Horſe, and are divided into 3 Bodies. In the mean time the Court is very much diſturb'd that the Duke de Vexar, the Marquis de Quintana, and Count Colmenero, all Grandees, have refus'd to attend the King into the Field as he requir'd them, it being their Duty as Gentlemen of his Chamber: 'Tis adviſ'd from Eſtramadura, that the Portugueſe are in Motion.

Letters that came by theſe Mails from the Hague, ſay Letters from Spain adviſ'd, that there was an Inſurrection in Andalouſia in Favour of King Charles III; and that there was a great Commotion in the City of Seville.

At the Deſire of ſeveral Perſons of Quality.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this preſent Thurſday, being the 17th of January, will be preſented, The laſt Reviv'd Opera, call'd, The Iſland Princeſs: or, the Generous Portugueſe. With all the Original Songs and Dialogues by the beſt Performers, particularly the Enthuſiaſtick Song by Mr. Leveridge. And ſeveral New Entertainments of Dancing by Monſieur du Ruel, Mrs. du Ruel, Monſieur Cherrier, Mrs. Croſs, Mrs. Evans and others.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this preſent Thurſday, being the 17th of January, will be preſented a Play, call'd, Don Sebaſtian, King of Portugal, with a Dialogue between a Town Miſs and a Drunken Officer, perform'd by Mr. Pack and Mr. Cook. To which will be added, ſeveral Entertainments of Dancing by Mr. Layfield, particularly a new Italian Scaramouch, with Comical Dances by Mr. Godwin.

Theſe Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott Next Nando's Coffee-Houſe, Temple-Bar.

An Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntſman and Pack of Hounds, the German Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All Inſtruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be ſeen this preſent Evening, at 7 a Clock at the Globe Tavern in Fleet-ſtreet. Price 1 s.

A large White French Spaniel Dog, 8 months old, with large Yellow or Ruſſet colour'd Spots, his Chops and Ears which are very long Ruſſet colour'd, 3 Quarters ſterne, the end of it only White: And an Engliſh middle ſiz'd White Spaniel Bitch a Year old, with very light or pale Yellow Spots, her Ears and Chops of the ſame Colour 3 Quarters ſterne; both loſt on Tueſday Night the 8th Inſtant, about 5 a Clock by Temple Bar; whoever brings Tidings of them to Mrs. Doves in Aſhentree Court in White Fryars, ſo as they may be had again, ſhall have a Guinea Reward.

Loſt on Tueſday the 15th Inſtant, between Leiceſter Fields and St. Martin's Lane, a middle ſiz'd Engliſh Land Spaniel, both his Ears and part of his Face being Red, with ſeveral large Red Spots on his Body, lame of his near fore Leg and griſſ'd about the Face and Eyes, being old. Whoſoever brings the ſaid Dog or diſcovers where he is to Mr. Batſon at his Coffee-houſe in Cornhil, or to Mr. Ney at Tom's Coffee-houſe in St. Martin's Lane, ſhall have half a Guinea Reward, the Dog was dirty when loſt being come to Town that Morning.

For Sale by the Candle. By the Honourable the Commiſſioners of Her Majeſty's Cuſtoms. On Wedneſday the 23d of this Inſtant January 1705-6, at 2 of the Clock in the Afternoon, will be ſold by the Candle, in the great Cuſtom-Houſe, London, the Goods hereafter mentioned, viz. A Parcel of French Red Wines and Brandy, and are to be ſeen at the Queen's Ware-Houſe at the Cuſtom-Houſe above mentioned, on Saturday, Monday and Tueſday, the 19th, 21ſt and 22d of this Inſtant January, from 8 to 12 at Noon, and from 2 till 5 in the Afternoon, and on Wedneſday till 12 a Clock.

At the Blew-coat Coffee-houſe in Swithin's Alley near the Exchange this preſent Evening at 4 a Clock, will begin the Sale by Auction of the Hiſtory, Travels, Miſcellanies, &c. in Fol. of an extraordinary Collection of Modern Engliſh Books, moſt of which are guilt Back or neatly Bound, among them are Dr. Haley's Collection of Voyages in 4 Vol. Mr. Harris's Collection in 2 Vol. Fol. Dryden, Cowley, Davenant, Beaumont and Fletcher's Works, and moſt other Poetry, Plays, Romances, Hiſtory, or Travels. Catalogues may be had at the Place of Sale. Note, they are the entire Books of a Perſon lately deceas'd, and not one being added by any Bookſeller, and will be ſold to the higheſt Bidder, to Morrow will come on the 8vos.

For the Advancement of Experimental Philoſophy, and for the Benefit of all ſuch Gentlemen, as are willing to lay the beſt and ſureſt Foundation for all uſeful Knowledge: There are provided Engines for rarifying and condenſing Air, with all the Appurtenances thereunto belonging; alſo Barometers, Theromometers, and ſuch other Inſtruments as are neceſſary for a Courſe of Experiments, in order to prove the Weight and Spring of the Air, its uſefulneſs in the propogation of Sounds and Conſervation of Life, &c. with ſeveral new and ſurprizing Experiments concerning the Production of Light in Vacuo: Likewiſe Utenſils proper for making the Hydroſtatical Experiments to determine the Laws of Fluids Gravitating upon each other. By J. Hodgſon and F. Hauksbee, Fellows of the Royal Society. This Courſe will begin on Monday the 21ſt of January next, about 5 in the Evening, at the Room ſtanding over the Entrance to the Queen's Head Tavern in Fleet-ſtreet, near Temple-Bar, and will be continued Mondays and Thurſdays till finiſh'd. At which times Lectures will be Read for the better underſtanding the Experiments, and for the drawing of ſuch Concluſions and Uſes as flow from them. Thoſe Gentlemen that are deſirous to be preſent muſt pay 2 Guineas, one at the time of Subſcription, and the other on the 3d Night after the Courſe begins. Subſcriptions are taken in at Mr. Hauksbee's in Gilt-ſpur-ſtreet without Newgate, and at Mr. Senex's Bookſeller next Door to the Fleece Tavern in Cornhill, at which Place Propoſals more at large may be ſeen.

This Day is Publiſh'd,

The Great Duty of Univerſal Love and Charity. A Sermon preach'd before the Queen, at St. James's Chapel, on Sunday December the 30th, 1705. By Samuel Clarke, M. A. Chaplain to the Lord Biſhop of Norwich. Publiſhed by Her Majeſties Special Command. Printed for James Knapton, at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, 1706. Price 6 d. where may be had M. Boyle's Lecture for 1704, and 1705.

Lately publiſh'd,

A new Deſcription of Orkney, Zetland, Pightland Firth, and Caitneſſe; being a Journal of the Author's Voyage thither, and a general Account of thoſe Northern Places; as alſo a View of the ſeveral Iſles, with what is moſt remarkable therein. By J. Brand. Sold by J. Taylor, at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The incomparable Pulvil, which effectually cures the Scurvy in the Gums, keeps hollow Teeth from aching, rotten Teeth from ſtinking or retaining any ill ſmell, faſtens looſe Teeth, and makes them very White, and both hardens the Gums and preſerves them from waſting, with printed Directions. Price 12 d. per Box, at the Golden Ball in Fiſher's Street near Red Lion Square.

Horæ Lyricæ. Poems, chiefly of the Lyrick kind, In Two Books. I. Songs, &c. Sacred to Devotion. II. Odes, Elegys, &c. to Vertue Loyalty and Friendſhip. By J. Watts. Printed by S. and D. Bridge, for John Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultrey, 1706.

LONDON: Printed, and ſold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.